HENLEY'S GOT TALENT

What a fantastic evening we had at this year's 'HENLEY'S GOT TALENT'. A huge well done to the winners: Dean Hartwright and Lewis Hawkins, and to all the children who took part.

None of this would have been possible without the PTA, so a massive thank you to you all.

Book Week

This year our book week will start on Monday 27th March, culminating with our Book Day on Friday 31st March and the theme is bedtime stories. So if your child would like to bring in their favourite bed time story book and come to school dressed in their PJ's, that's fine.

Attendance

Please ensure that medical appointments are made outside of school time, if at all possible.

Reminder:

Mrs. Allen is available to speak to you about your child in Key Stage 2 (Years 3, 4, 5 and 6).

Mrs. Field is available to speak to you about your child in Key Stage 1 (Years 1 and 2), Reception and Nursery.

WELL DONE:

Year 6 for their fantastic efforts at the recent Stratford indoor athletics event. Overall they came 3rd, but more importantly they were a credit to our school, both in terms of attitude and behavior. Well done Year 6 and thank you to Mrs. Johnson for helping out on the day.

Street Dancers for their excellent performance in celebration assembly last week. A well done to Charlie Poole for being awarded the street dancer trophy.

Lola and Scarlet Burkitt, who have been selected for the cast of Oliver Twist. They are performing in the Crescent Theatre, Birmingham from May 27th – June 3rd.

Aliza Perrins, who was selected through the Starlight School of Dance to perform in Dick Wittington. Aliza will also dancing with Pasha (off Strictly Come Dancing) over the holiday.

WE ARE VERY PROUD OF YOU: At the recent athletics event, a member of the Stratford High School team commented on the 'excellent manners and politeness of the team!' This is always great to hear, well done Year 6 😊
